

Name _____

Venn Diagram

Cut these apart and place them in the proper place on the Venn diagram.

used slaves as labor	lasted about 1,000 years	had a senate and an assembly most marriages arranged	generally stayed in the same class as one's father	had many gods – Christianity came in later periods father had the power to sell children into slavery	used serfs as labor	Christianity was the dominant religion of the day life revolved around the manor	limited health care	caste system made up of nobles, knights, clergy, tradesmen and peasants gladiators were part of the entertainment	no central plumbing	chariot races were held were influenced by Greek philosophers	held jousts	the church said diseases were "sins of the soul" had town or manor festivals	developed a constitution	the king was the ultimate ruler music and art held considerable importance (especially for the wealthy)	